February 2010

A Minute with Mary

One of the primary goals of Republican Women's clubs is to "promote an informed electorate through political education." By being a member of CFRW, we all attempt to do this by coming to our meetings and paying attention to the information presented by our speakers. With the primary election right around the corner, we have another excellent opportunity to educate ourselves, as well as our family and friends.

There are 90 races on the primary ballot. At the top of the ballot are your US Representative, Governor, and Lt. Governor; then various state-wide positions, Supreme Court and Court of Criminal Appeals positions, Court of Appeals justices, District Court judges, county judges, District Clerk, County Clerk, school trustees, county commissioners, justices of the peace, and Harris County Republican Party Chair. Some of the races are unopposed, but many of them have several people vying for the same position. This is when being informed pays off, because the winner of the contested races is the person who will face any challengers in the November General Election; and we all want to have the best, most qualified person possible representing the Republican Party in November.

It has been said that grass roots support starts with one person, who will tell ten (or more) friends to vote and for whom they suggest that they vote; and they in turn tell ten (or more) friends, and so on. It is important that people be encouraged to go and vote in the primary. This is particularly important in the upcoming primary because there are so many races on the ballot. It is equally important that they wade through the lengthy ballot and vote for all the positions. We want good candidates that can stand up to any challengers, so there is not a repeat of the losses our party saw in 2008 in our local races.

In an effort to educate as many people as we can, CFRW is hosting a Judges Forum on February 23, 2010. At the forum we hope to have many of the county judicial candidates on hand, so that we can meet them and find out their qualifications. (Look for more information about the Forum later in this newsletter). Why are these positions important you may ask? Granted, judges are on the bottom of the rung for elected officials, but they are also the people that we most likely will have direct contact with over the course of our life times; either by way of personal litigation or legal precedence or jury duty. Judges are also the foundation of the local party from which the rest of our elected officials rely upon for their own success.

Another important part of the primary election is the convention that takes place right after the polls close on Election Day at every precinct. I encourage everyone to try to attend this gathering. At the precinct convention, delegates to the Senatorial Convention (March 20, 2010) will be elected. Suggestions can be made with regards to the party platform that will be passed on to our party leaders. At the Senatorial Convention, officers and delegates for the state wide convention (held in Dallas, June 11-12, 2010) will be elected and suggestions for changes in the party platform will be voted on to be presented at the State Convention.

The March 2nd Primary is the beginning of the process that will either change the direction that our nation, state and community takes or continue us on the current path. Be informed and pass on this information. GO VOTE, and remind your family and friends to GO VOTE!

JUDGE JOHN F. PHILLIPS

Speaking at our February meeting is Judge John F. Phillips. Judge Phillips is a State District Court Judge and Administrative Judge of the Juvenile Courts of Harris County. Judge Phillips' court, the 314th, is involved in some exciting programs that he would like to share with our club members and get some feedback from us.

Judge Phillips is a native Houstonian. He is married to Celeste Phillips, and they have two children, Sam and Jacqueline. He graduated from the South Texas College of Law and is a former Assistant District Attorney (1981-1985). John practiced private law 1985-2002 until he was elected to the 314th District Court in 2002. Judge Phillips was re-elected to the bench in 2006.

Judge Phillips has many more accomplishments to share with us and will certainly have many very interesting insights into the court system of which he is a part. Please plan to attend the February 9th meeting and meet Judge John F. Phillips.

LEGISLATIVE - Dawn Shull

Chalk one up for the First Amendment. The recent Supreme Court decision in Citizens United v. Federal Election Commission "reverses a 1990 ruling by the court that allowed the government to bar corporations and unions from spending general treasury funds on ads expressly urging a candidate's election or defeat. And it overruled part of a 2003 decision that upheld restrictions on independent corporate expenditures enacted the preceding year in the seminal campaign finance overhaul act known as McCain-Feingold."¹

"Hopefully, this ruling marks an end to 20 years of jurisprudence in which the Court has provided less protection to core political speech than it has to Internet pornography, the transmission of stolen information, flag burning, commercial advertising, topless dancing, and burning a cross outside an African-American church."

"No sufficient governmental interest justifies limits on the political speech of nonprofit or for-profit corporation," Justice Anthony Kennedy wrote for the majority.

To really understand the significance of the Republican victory in Massachusetts please read Daniel Henniger's very insightful article, *The Fall of the House of Kennedy*³, explaining that "Scott Brown's victory in Massachusetts will not endure unless Republicans clearly understand the meaning of 'the machine' that he ran against and defeated." 3

March 2 is the Republican Primary. You'll find a sample ballot at the Harris County GOP Web site⁴. Most candidates have links to their Web sites.

The Republican Leadership Council logo is not an endorsement but indicates those elected officials and candidates who support the Harris County Republican Party through membership in the Republican Leadership Council.
